Subject: RE: FOR CONSIDERATION: 2020 Comprehensive Combo Course Nomination for EPA attendees - due 1/21

Hi Suzanne,

Thank you for reaching out. Unfortunately the registration for the Combo Course closed on January 9th. The only exception is for EPA folks since their attendance was not addressed in the initial nomination call.

I apologize for the confusion. I am copying Region 5 so they understand the difference.

Best wishes,

Subject: FOR CONSIDERATION: 2020 Comprehensive Combo Course Nomination for EPA attendees - due 1/21

Colleagues,

Because the initial nomination form for the 2020 Comprehensive Combo Course did not address EPA attendees, we are extending the deadline for EPA applicants to COB Tuesday, January 21st. If you are interested in attending the course, please submit your nomination via this link: https://ucanr.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_eCDPnE5eoGUQiwJ no later than COB Tuesday, January 21st. Below is the original announcement that describes the course. The agenda for the course is under development, however it will cover the four major areas listed below.

Please note there are only 3 or 4 spots available due to limited meeting room space. Also, EPA attendees will pay for all their expenses as well as a $200 registration fee to cover meals, snacks, etc.

Please email me if you have any questions or need additional information.

Thanks.

Cindy

Subject: [PREP Nomination] 2020 Comprehensive Combo Course Nomination

Please forward this message to targeted personnel within your organization - this is the only announcement that will be sent.

The nomination process is now open for the upcoming Pesticide Regulatory Education Program (PREP) Comprehensive Combo Course, which will be offered by the University of California Statewide Integrated Pest Management Program (UC IPM) from March 23–26, 2020 in Davis, California and funded by the U.S. EPA.

This course will provide participants with information, skills, and contacts relevant to state tribal and territory programs. It will also enable participants to network and build relationships with each other and U.S. EPA.

Information to be covered in this course includes:

- Federal and state program structure, coordination and communication
- FIFRA Cooperative Agreement basics
- Leadership and management training
- New and emerging issues and technologies

Selected participants will have all travel and lodging expenses paid by UC IPM.

The target audience for this course includes new and experienced state, territory, and tribal pesticide program managers, supervisors, or senior staff who work under a FIFRA Cooperative Agreement. A total of 25 participants will be selected to participate. We request that participants be willing to give a 5 to 10-minute presentation. Specific information regarding the presentation will be provided as part of a brief homework assignment for all attendees.

Before visiting the nomination form, please have all of the following ready:

1. The nominee's name, job title, agency or tribe, email, number of years with the agency, and number of years in the nominee's current position.
2. Responses to the following questions:
 - What are the nominee's job responsibilities and how are they relevant to the course? (100 words maximum)
 - Why is this training essential to the nominee's job responsibilities? (100 words maximum)
 - Submit 1-2 sentences describing 2 topics you wish to see offered during the course.

When these responses are prepared, the nomination form for this course can be found on the Comprehensive Combo Course page. The deadline for nominations is January 9, 2020 at 5:00 pm (Pacific Standard Time).

If you require any assistance or have any questions regarding the nomination process, please contact one of the UC IPM PREP team members at prep@ucanr.edu. Please visit the PREP Network website for more information. We look forward to your nomination!

Sincerely,

Lisa Blecker
